

ABS Modulator Connections CRF1100L Africa Twin 20YM

The ABS control unit is connected via the CAN system to the IMU Suspension Control Unit and the Body Control Unit. In addition it is also connected to the Fuel Injection Control Unit. Information is shared between the units so that it can be used to control the engine, suspension and ABS systems. There is also a separate CAN line between the two displays.

